TO: PO Drew Putrello

RE: Utica Police Chapter 5 & 8 receipt

As a Utica Police Officer you are bound by strict rules and regulations as outlined in the Utica Police Policy and Procedure Manual; which were written as guidelines for conduct and responsibility.

This written notification is to inform you that as a Utica Police Officer you are expected to read, understand and adhere to the rules and regulation of the "Utica Police Policy and Procedure Manual"

On December 21, 2020, PO Drew Putrello was spoken to by members of the Office of Professional Standards at which time he was advised regarding his/her responsibilities in reviewing and knowing what is in the Utica Police Policy and Procedure Manual, specifically the outlined policy and procedure for the following chapters; Also as part of the MVPA refresher course training I, spoke to PO Drew Putrello regarding ECD (Electronic Control Device), and Pursuit Driving

Please read;

UTICA POLICY AND PROCEDURE CHAPTER 5 & 8 (Rules and Regulations)

- CHAPTER FIVE (5), ARTICLE TEN (10): PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS INVESTIGATIONS.
- CHAPTER EIGHT (8), ARTICLE ONE (1): PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS OF CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Also discussed were the implications of being a Brady and Giglio Officer, Use of personal and social media both on and off duty, officer involved domestic incidents and personnel complaints.

BRADY RULE

The Brady Rule, named for Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), which requires prosecutors to disclose materially exculpatory evidence in the government's possession to the defense. "Brady Material" or evidence the prosecutor is required to disclose under this rule includes any evidence favorable to the accused—evidence that goes towards the negating a defendant's guilt, that would reduce a defendant's potential sentence, or evidence going to the credibility of a witness.

If the prosecution does not disclose material exculpatory evidence under this rule, and prejudice has ensued, the evidence will be suppressed. The evidence will be suppressed regardless of whether the prosecutor knew the evidence was in his or her possession, or whether or not the prosecutor intentionally or inadvertently withheld the evidence from the defense. The defendant bears the burden of proving that the disclosed evidence was material, and the defendant must show that there is a reasonable probability that there would be a difference in the outcome of the trial had the evidence been disclosed by the prosecutor.

Police Officers who have been dishonest are sometimes referred to as "Brady Cops." Because of the Brady ruling, prosecutors are required to notify defendants and their attorneys whenever a law enforcement official involved in their case has a sustained record for knowingly lying in an official capacity.

TESTIFYING

1. Telling lies under oath; standard operating procedure for police officers acting as witnesses in trials.
2. Police perjury is the act of a police officer giving false testimony

Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), is a United States Supreme Court case in which the Court held that the prosecutor's failure to inform the jury that the witness had been promised not to be prosecuted in exchange for his / her testimony was a failure to fulfill the duty to present all material evidence to the jury, and constituted a violation of due process, requiring a new trial. This is the case even if the failure to disclose was a matter of negligence and not intent. The case extended the Court's holding in Brady v. Maryland, requiring such agreements to be disclosed to defense counsel. As a result of this case, the term "Giglio material" is something used to refer to any information pertaining to deals that witnesses in a criminal case have entered into with the government.

After speaking to personnel from the office of Professional Standards, I hereby acknowledge that I have been spoken to regarding my responsibilities in reviewing, knowing and adhering to the rules and regulations of the Utica Police Departments "Policy and Procedure." I am fully aware that any acts committed by me, violating and portion of the Utica Police Policy and Procedure, can result in disciplinary action against me to include termination. I understand that it is my sole responsibility to review and adhere to the Utica police Policy and Procedure.
